HOGE SHAFT NOW NEAR STATION CROSS CUTTING

The finishing touches to the new three compartment shaft on the properties of the Hoge Development Company north of town will be put on in the next few days. The shaft is near the 300 foot mark and a 25 foot sump will be cut below that level for drainage and station facilities and crosscuts will be run to tap the ore bodies and determine their extent, size and dip, on various levels to the surface.

The shaft is a fine piece of work and has been done on contract. The three compartments are carried to the bottom and will furnish ample facilities for hoisting and pumping. Excellent formation was found all the way down from the surface which made for speed in getting the hole down. The property will be thoroughly developed before any milling facilities are installed as the intention of the company to develop large ore reserves before commencing milling.

By a series of shallow shafts and numerous crosscuts and drifts the company the past year has uncovered a number of promising ledges which show excellent values and which give appearance of good depth. Being virgin territory and with ample ground for working, the company has promise of a remunerative future. With ample finances for prosecuting its development program, Nevada City can confidently look to operations on a large scale by the Hoge interests the coming year. Fifteen men are now employed at the property.

VOLLMER WILL START MINING OPERATIONS

One of the promising mining operations contemplated for the coming year are by I. J. Vollmer of San Jose who has eight claims near Pike City on a known gravel channel which has shown excellent values in years past by hydraulicking methods. There is 3000 feet of river channel which is exposed at each end of the property by hydaulic pits. As soon as the surveys are completed lines will be run to determine the proper site for a tunnel to be run in to open up the channel. There are also promising quartz prospects on the property.

Mr. Vollmer took out a membership in the state mining association through The Nugget office and has strong praise for the association in its efforts to reduce the high cot of compensation insurance. He keeps posted on mining developments in this section through the columns of The Nugget.

CENSUS CHIEF THOMAS VISITS NEVADA CITY

H. B. Thomas of Placerville, government census enumerator for this district comprising nine counties in this section, was in Nevada City the past week in conference with the board of supervisors regarding the districting of the county for enumerating work which is to commence after the first of the year. There are to be appoximately 30 disticts in this county and applications are being received from interested persons who wish to qualify for the work.

Wholesale and retail tabulation will be started after Jan. 1st while the population enumeration gets under way after April 1st. Information can be obtained by applying to Mr. Thomas by letter or from the Cessus Bureau at Washington.

Thoe who are appointed to take the business census are to be paid at the rate of 20c per report, with higher rate of pay in sections whiih are sparsely settled or difficult of access. As far as possible, those who qualify in the examinations and handle the business census will be retained for population enumeration in April.

Enumerators should have their own cars and be prepared to devote a large part of their time, although not necessarily full time, to the business survey. Full time is required for population enumeration, however, and those of average ability and application, it is estimated should earn from eight to ten dollars a day.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN IS BEING CLOSED UP

Those who have not taken out their memberships should do so at once so that the lists may be closed. Subscriptions may be mado at The Nugget office, The Bank of America and the Morning Union.

NEW COMPANY TO REDUCE THE COST MINING COMPENSATION INSURANCE

At the meeting in question, the Manager and Actuary of the Inspection Rating Bureau of California which fixes the workmen's compensation insurance Commissioner of California, were present. They explained and defended the methods now is vogue for fixing the rates, and in spite of the evidence produced by your Committee to the effect that the California rates are higher than the rates of any other State in the United States, and that in the last ten years the California rates for workmen's compensation insurance for the mining industry have practically trebled, your Committee met with no encouragement from these officials for any reduction in the rates. The only explanation offered in defense of the rates was the claim that California by legislative enactment and by rulings of the Industrial Accident Commission has been more liberal than any other State in the amount of its payments and in its awards to injured workmen, thus causing higher rates than other States require. The only prospect of relief they could suggest, was improved precautions against accidents.

Your Committee has taken advantage of every subsequent opportunity to place before meetings of mining sympathizers the condition brought out by these investigations. Until the mining industry, generally and unitedly, realizes the enormous burden placed upon the industry by the excessive cost of workmen's compensation insurance, which has reached almost prohibitory rates, it is unlikely there will be any official action looking to relief.

The rates seem to be made to satisfy the demand of the private insuring companies that they may be allowed to collect such rates as to permit all losses, including hospital charges, to be kept within 60% of the premiums, the remaining 40% of the premiums collected being required for the acquisition cost of the business, operating costs and profits.

The following is a list showing the cost of workmen's compensation insurance in 1928 in the several States in the Union which responded to our questionnaire. The name of the State, kind of mining and premium rate per $100 of payroll are given:

Ohio, coal mining, $4.00.

Utah, coal mining, stock companies, $3.90; coal mining, State Insurance Fund, $3.12; Metal mining, Stock companies, $3.75; Metal mining, State Insurance Fund, $3.00.

Massachusetts, iron, lead, or zinc mining, underground, $5.64; Surface mining, not coal, $4.46; Placer mining, $4.46.

Oregon, Quartz mining, $3.50; Placer mining, $3.00. (Ic daily additional to be paid by each workman)

Michigan, Mining operations other than coal mining, $2.93.

Virginia, Coal mining, $5.75.

N. Dakota, Lignite coal mining, $6.25.

West Virginia, Coal mining, $2.10; Quarrying and mining other than coal, $2.75.

Pennsylvania, Bituminous mining, $3.95; Quarrying, not slate, $3.60; Mining, not coal, $3.90.

From this it will be seen that the adjoining States of Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Oregon, carry this insurance at a maximum cost of $3.75 per $100.00 of payroll for the metal mining industry.

SPORT NOTES

Standing of Teams

Native Sons	9	3	.750
Corte Colombo	7	5	.583
Odd Fellows	5	7	.517
Court Garfield	3	9	.250

The Native Sons maintained their position at the top of the horseshoe pitching ladder during the last week. Corte Cristoforo Colombo made a drive which planted them firmly in second place, with the Odd Fellows and Court Garfield Foresters composing the second division.

From the performances lately the indications are that the race will be between the first three teams which appear evenly matched. Court Garfield must perk up and dust off their shoes oftner if they are to avoid the pleasure of serving the roast duck this year.

Oustomah Lodges' pitchers gave the Native Sons the hardest fight they have had this year in last Tuesday's games and with but a different bounce on a single shoe the series might easily have ended with the leaders on the short end.

This week's games will put Garfield against the Native Son team on Tuesday evening and on Wednesday night the Colombo pitchers will meet the steady Odd Fellow sextet. If the dope works out the Natives should fatten their average while the Odd Fellows and Colombo are scratching around for the second rung of the ladder.

Last Monday's games: Cicogni and Muscardini, Corte Colombo, defeated Foote and Foss, Court Garfield, 53 to 11.

Peter Giani and Virgil Giani, Corte Colombo, defeated Leonard and Sandow, Court Garfield, 51 to 30.

Margaroli and Toccalini, Corte Colombo, defeated Rore and Jeffrey, Court Garfield, 52 to 34.

High Scores: P. Giani, 41; Cicogni, 35; Margaroli, 31.

Ringers: P. Giani, 10; Margaroli, 7; Cicogni, 6; Toccalini, 3.

Last Tuesday's scores:

Coughlin and Baker, Native Sons, defeated Boughman and Seaman, Odd Fellows, 50 to 33;

White, C. W. Chapman and Hallett, Native Sons, defeated Arbogast and Carlson, Odd Fellows, 50 to 49.

Zanocco and Shearer, Odd Fellows, defeated M. Chapman and Eddy, Native Sons, 50 to 47;

High Scores: Coughlin, 39; Hallett, 30; Carlson, 26.

AKERS AND HURLBURT BOND THE GRAY EAGLE

C. S. Akers and Thomas H. Hurlburt of Portland have bonded the Gray Eagle mining property above Downieville in Jim Crow canyon from the Yellow Tiger Consolidated interests who have been developing the property the past year. The Gray Eagle is owned by Dan Sullivan et al and the adjoining Elsie property which is also included in the deal is owned by Jones and Berry of Yuba City.

A 270 foot tunnel has been run on the Gray Eagle while on the Elsie there is a 1400 foot tunnel and a five stamp mill. Supplies are being taken in for the winter and the new operators propose to carry on development work during the winter. Electricity from the new Pacific system is contemplated in the spring if developments warrant.

CHRISTMAS MAILING URGED CAREFULNESS

Postmaster Philip G. Scadden is urging that shipment of Christmas packages for distant points be made as early as possible to make sure of their reaching their destination in plenty of time this year. Carefulness in wrapping is essential in order that the packages will arrive in good condition. This year by order of the post office department at Washington, Christmas Day will be a complete day of rest for the employees as no mail will be distributed or dispatched between Christmas Eve and the morning following Christmas.

N C WINS OVER FOLSOM

Twenty players and about forty rooters went to Folsom Friday night and saw the locals win two wonderfully—well played games. The "A's" won by a score of 33-11 and the "B's" came out on top with a 29-16 win.

The Pierce-Hogan passing combination with the dead-eye shooting of Hoskin and the offensive attack by Janes resulted in the defeat of Folsom in a creditable manner. Davey and Huson did some splendid guard work and broke up many attempted shots by the opposing quintet.

All the "B" boys held up the honor of their school by well-executed, team work and accurate shooting.

Fisher, Davis, Hieronimous, Tamblyn, Murchie, Sandow, Macari, Baker and Sbaffi performed for the "B's" while Hoskin, Gleason, Polglase, Pierce, Rector, Hogan, Masters, Janes, Davies, Huson and Davey did the honors for the "A's".

The local N. C.-G. V. bus was chartered and all the players and most of the rooters occupied every available space. Many rooters went down in private cars. The N. C. H. S. spirit was there in full force and the Folsomites were quite impressed by the great rooting section and the well-organized teams.

Mr. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Kjorlie, and Coach Pedersen accompanied those who rode in the bus.

John Sawbridge, C. Stracher and Rolland Whitmore, mining men interested in the Yakima-Mohawk mine in the southern edge of Nevada City inspected their interests during the last week.

John J. Connell, mining man of Alleghany, was in this city last week.

RADIO PROGRAM

Monday afternoon, December 2, the students assembled in the study hall to listen to the educational talk given weekly over the N. B. C. School of the Air. The radio was furnished by the Fisher Electric Shop.

The subject which was discussed was "Engineering as a Vocation" and was presented by Mr. Lester Ready, Consulting Engineer, State Department of Engineering.

Mr. Ready in opening his talk stated that there were four main classifications of engineering—civil, mechanical, mining and electrical. Under civil engineering may be found structure and transportation and the planning and building of bridges and railways. Mechanical engineering includes steam, automotive, marine and aeronautics. Mining engineering—mining and petroleum. Electrical engineering—industrial, as the telephone, telegraph and radio.

Any of the fields may be entered by beginners but it is not necessary to choose a certin line of work according to Mr. Ready, upon entering college as fundamentals of all types of engineering should be studied in order to have a clear idea of the field in whcih to specialize. Mr. Ready also said that although one may be proficient in all the classifications, it is almost impossible to be an expert in more than one.

The advantages in this line of work are many, the following perhaps being the most important. The work gives opportunity for cultural development and travel and is of great service to mankind. There is always room for anyone with the proper qualifications as new developments are constantly taking place, giving opportunity for service to a great many beginners.

Advancement depends, of course, upon the person, his ambition, ability and general fitness. But with these qualities and a real interest in the work success is almost certain.

Beginners, after graduating from college, are not very highly paid but by the end of the first year a minimum of $150.00 a month or a maximum of $300.00 may be reached.

The chief disadvantage is perhaps in that much of the work is routine for the first fifteen years, and at the beginning the prospective engineer must work very hard at drudgery to really accomplish anything.

The speaker believes that after graduating from collge a job out in th open at hard labor should be taken rather than office work, because of the practical experience that later on would be very necessary to anyone having men under him.

The following qualifications for an engineer were given by Mr. Ready as the most important in his opinion: He should be trained in mathematics and science, and have a logical thinking mind; he must be willing to work and should be reliable, honest, and physically fit for he work he is to take up.

AUBURN GAME

The basketball games last Friday with Auburn presented some exciting amusement for the students and spectators.

While the "C" team has been practicing faithfully every day, their playing still shows that they still have much room for improvement in working out plays. The two forwards, Toccalini and Wasley, were fighting with the old "N. C. H. S." spirit and showed the Auburn boys some skillful plays. It might have been their off night as Auburn won by a victory of thirty-five to six but all of the "C" team faithfully declare that this won't happen in the next game.

The "B" team was probably one of the most exciting games ever played in the hall. The crowd cheered and the students yelled until the hall reverberated like the sound of huge thunderbolts.

The boys were fighting as spirits fight for life although during the whole game there were no signs of unsportsmanlike conduct; it was a clean game right through.

Hiermonimous and Fischer played practically through the whole game as forwards making their opponents think three times before leaping. They were dodging in and out like a bunch of scared rabbits, although Hiermonimous has been confined at home some time because of quarantine and has not had a chance to practice until the past week but he seemed to take the ball and play the game with unmost precision, shooting baskets as if he were eating candy. Fischer was equally as good, missing very few shots. The two worked together and looked as graceful as a team of twin coach horses. Sbaffi was also playing a fine game as running guard, having a fine eye for the long shots and working with the two forwards as systematically as the many different parts of machinery work together. Murchie and Macari were standing guard and center respectively but on the jump-off they switched positions because Murchie can put his hands pretty far up to the roof besides being able to jump still higher. Macari filled his center line like water fills a leaky boat being all over at once. Murhhie saw that no one got through unnecessarily

At the end of the fourth quarter the score was tied, 22-22, and both teams elected to play another three minute quarter. In this last three minutes Coach Pedersen substitute Tamblyn in Hieronimous' position.

The players unluckily let excitement get the best of them or else they became a little over confident because they had kept a large number of scores ahead of their opponents during most of the game. At any rate they lost the game by two baskets.

During the last three minutes the applause of the spectators was enough to wake the dead.

If ever there was such a thing as an unlucky day the N. C. "A" team certainly had theirs Friday night. They made a spectacular looking sight on the warmup but the Auburn players must have had something more than they appeared to have inside their green pajamalike sweatsuits.

Nevada City's defense seemed to be as porous as a sponge, the Auburn team getting through it almost every time. Nearly every player on our team had at least one foul called on him not because of dirty playing but no one seemed to be conscious of what he was doing. Nevada City had one disadvantage. Our star player, Captain Pierce, having just been vaccinated, was not in the best playing condition.

In the third quarter Coach Pedersen put in most of the second team who seemed to hold their own nearly as good as the first.

This week the boys are doing some mighty strenuous and thorough practicing and feel sure that their next opposing team will not find them as easy to overcome as they were last Friday.

STUDENT BODY MEETING

After the radio program, Monday afternoon, a student body meeting was held and several matters were brought to the attention of the students by the president, Holden Pierce. The foremost matter was several bills which have been sent the student body, amounting to about eighty-four dollars.

It was decided that the bills should be paid at once and Mr. Wilson then gave a short talk in which he suggested that a definite time schedule should be followed each month for the holding of student body meetings.

The constitution was read and the probability of amending it was discussed. As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

BASKETBALL GAME

On Tuesday evening our "A" team went to Grass Valley and played the Scoccer club.

The pigskin kickers were a good team but proved no match for our fast and furious antelopes who went down determined to return with the spoils of victory, and our team took a score of 30 to 14 from the soccer boys.

Practically all the "A" men had a chance to play in this game.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shurtleff, had as recent guests their son Clyde, and wife of Sacramento.

While many radio manufacturers are making claims and counter claims about the superior qualities of their wares more power, more distance, more selectivity, more sensitivity, less hum, better tone, we ask you to be fair with yourself and think this over—Why is Atwater Kent the largest manufacturer of radios on earth? Why has Atwater Kent led all others in sales? And when we say ALL, we mean just that.

Why does Atwater Kent make and ship 12,000 radio sets per day at the peak season? Why has Atwater Kent factory capacity been doubled in the last year, making more than 32 acres of radio factory? Why do Atwater Kent dealers the world over continue to handle his line? Your fair answer to these questions should settle that all important question of

Sleepy eyes

....the cause IS poor lighting

HAVE you ever heard a child say, in the early evening, "I'm sleepy, Mother, I'll do this home-work tomorrow morning."

That may be a sign of eye-strain. Caused by poor lighting. Oculists know how true this is.

It means a child is slipping instead of forging ahead. The tragedy occurs when a child goes on neglecting studies because of the fact that poor lighting makes him sleepy early.

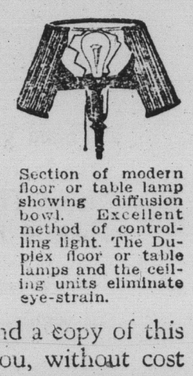
And why should any young person lose their chance in life when good lighting in the living-room costs but 1½c an hour!

Would you like to know about proper home lighting? The P G and E's lighting specialists will gladly advise you.

A booklet on correct home lighting

As a tribute to Thomas Alva Edison, inventor of the electric lamp, we have prepared a booklet called "The Romantic Evolution of Light," which has 27 beautiful full-page pictures, 8 by 11 inches. The pictures show the ancient people, in their quaint dress, using the lamps of Babylonia, of Rome, and lamps that were handed down through the dark ages. The booklet traces the development of today's lighting and shows the revolutionary discoveries, during the last few years, of correct home lighting.

Section of modern Duplex lighting unit that directs raw light to ceiling, diffuses it evenly over the entire room and correctly controls the light.



Section of modern floor or table lamp showing diffusion bowl. Excellent method of controlling light. The Duplex floor or table lamps and the ceiling units eliminate eye-strain.

If you like we'll send a copy of this 32 page booklet to you, without cost or obligation.

Telephone to our local office. Or use the convenient request form below.

FRENCH CORRAL ITEMS

FRENCH CORRAL, Dec.7, (Special to The Nugget)— Thanksgiving Day for 1929 is past, and no doubt it leaves many hearts filled with happy memories. To parents, the home coming of children, and to others the visit from friends make the day one to be remembered. The youngr set always find some special pleasure for the day, altogether every heart has something to be thankful for. It was a day of sunshine and the night clear and beautiful in our part of the country.

While we would be glad of some moisture from above we are not looking for any this year. Perhaps some is being stored up for 1930.

Miss Miilis Clerkin was down from Pike City Friday. She and her brother are busy getting their stock rounded up for the winter

George McCullough of North San Juan had business in this section Friday.

Norman Fogarty ofSan Juan was a Friday visitor.

Geo. Pantages of Roseville made a business trip here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Blarnett of Oakland were the guests of Mrs. J. Kirkwood and Mrs. R. Dahlberg. Mrs. Blarnett, who was Ruby Kirkwood in her girlhood, is a native of this place or rather, she was born at Bridgeport, but as her home was in our school district we claim her of course. Her grand parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Cooley were pioneer residents of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Burnett, former residents of Sweetland, and also natives of that place, have returned to Sweetland, after spending some time at their home in Bakersfield.

Miss Louise Moulton, who teaches school in North Bloomfield came home to spend the week end with her parents and also home for Thanksgiving Day.

W. E. Moulton had business in Marysville Saturday.

Rev. Father O'Rielly of Nevada City held services in Birchville Sunday. Clement Organ came from Nevada City with him.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Flynn of Nevada City were Sunday visitors. As they were old time residents of Birchville and always faithful attendants of St. Columbkile's church of that place, they gave their friends a happy surprise by reachinb there just in time to attend the Sunday service. Mrs. Flynn's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. N. Doyle, were pioneer residents of French Corral, later the family moved to Birchville in thelater years, where Mrs. Flynn was born, and made her home until several years ago when she and her husband moved to Nevada City in order to give their children the advantages of high school. They were sadly missed by all their neighbors, who are always delighted with a visit from them.

the older set of retired dancers to attempt a glide over the splendid dancing floor of the Pavilion, and it was a source of much enjoyment to watch the happy throngs of dancers. In fact, everything seemed perfectly in keeping, with the occasion to make it a most enjoyable success. Mr. Wilson's Resort si beautifully situated on the highway, at the junction of the roads, a dreamy place up among the beautiful tall pines, an deves aside from the pleasure of dancing one could not help enjoying a visit to the place. The dance was well attended by people from all the surrounding towns, and even as far south as Sacramento. During the evening turkeys, cake, and candy were raffled, and this helped to swell the returns. A roughestimate by the committee gives our Water Association over $150.00 clear. Right here we wish to return our sincere thanks to all who helped us make this occasion a success, and especially in Nevada City and Grass Valley, to all who, knowing they could not be in attendance, responded cheerfully to our collector in buying tickets. Our Water Association we fear is sadly misunderstood by some but we will stay by the old adage, "Be sure you are right, and go ahead". and in time all mistakes and misunderstandings will be corrected. We are certainly in need of all the help we can get to help us out and we are willing to work hard to help ourselves through our committees.

We wish further to assure Mr. Wilson of our deep appreciation of all his kindness to help make this event a social success. When he first opened up he offered our association the free ue of it any time we wished to give a dance there, and just now the opportunity seemed ripe to avail ourselves of this kind offer. He has used every effort to help us, by giving us the advantage of his prices in everything, and helping us in advertising, etc. We appreciate all more than we can express.

And here we wish to say that our own Uncle Tom Coan has repeatedly made our Water Association the same offer and sometime in the near future we hope to avail ourselves of this.

Lewis Nichols of Sacramento, a native of French Corral, visited his old home town on Thanksgiving Day. He was accompanied by a friend, Miss Meyers of Vacaville.

Thomas J. Fogarty of Marysville and Joseph Fogarty of Hammonton were Thanksgiving Day visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Coners and Mr. and Mrs. Rowe of Sacramento are sojourning at the summer home of Mr. Conner in Sweetland.

Joseph Swazey and Ralph Thomas were down from the Siberia mine Thanksgiving Day.

We will close by extending to the family of Mr. Charles Salmon our deepest sympathy. We deplore the loss of such good men.

FRENCH CORRAL, Dec. 6, (Special to The Nugget)—Well, here we are in the last month of 1929, and the unusual conditions under which we have been living have worked hardships and losses to many.

We can hardly realize that Christmas is but three weeks ahead. So we will try to forget our troubles and look forward to that happy time, with the hpe that even then our wants may be, at least partially supplied.

The S. J. R. W. A. held their regular meeting Sunday afternoon The members were jubilant over the financial success of the dance given by them at Wilson's Log Cabin, November 27th and feel that they can cannot overdue their thanks and praise to Mr. Wilson

We return our sincere thanks to all who worked in our behalf and especially to Mr. A. Browning who helped us wonderfully in selling tickets and in many other ways

Our Association is composed of honest hard suffering people, who in their effeorts to obtain that on great necessity of life WATER, have incurred a heavy indebtedness which would never have been so great had not their efforts been so seriously handicapped by opposing parties. Our activities at all time have been open for inspection and we do nothing underhanded. Our Ways and Means Committee of whom we depend very much is composed of men whose character is above reproach. We hope to pay all our indebtedness, but this takes time, determination and much labor, which we are willing to give to attain our honest purpose, and we are thankful to all who are willing to give assistance in our behalf.

We are now planning a dance at San Juan on Christmas, Eve which we sincerely hope will be a social and financial success. More about this later.

E. Collins of Sweetland was hauling wood to French Corral Tuesday and Wednesday.
